Camp Quinipet, Shelter Island

District Youth Retreat

Details at liedistrict.com/youth-retreat

Youth from all over the annual conference will be there!

This year our theme is "Belong!" and it's our hope that you'll find opportunities to make friendships that will last, as we discover that we all belong together in Christ.

What to expect:

The retreat consists of campwide games, a scavenger hunt, worship, food and workshops.

There will be ample time for free time so you can play card games, basketball, volleyball, "carpet ball", gaga ball, or something else entirely.

Arrival & Departure:

All participants should plan to arrive at Quinipet before 7pm on Friday. (Carpools are encouraged!) We'll be headed home at lunchtime on Sunday.

Facilities:

The cabins at Quinipet offer heated, dorm-style housing with bunk beds, bathrooms and shower stalls.

Cost:

The cost of the retreat is $125, and includes all meals on Saturday, Sunday breakfast, and all activities. Additional family members are $75 each.

For info contact Pastor David Czeisel
(david.czeisel@nyac-umc.com).

ST. HUGH'S PROJECT H.O.P.E.

FEEDING PEOPLE, BRINGING HOPE

*"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink...
As often as you did it for one of my least brothers, you did it for me." Matthew 25:35, 40*

TRI-CYA's pantry is empty - please help.

Tri-CYA serves about 100 families every week with basic needs. They also serve 40 children before and after school. Can you help? The following are the items they are looking for:

Nonperishable items that can sit on a shelf for a few weeks:

Cans of fruit, vegetables, soups, chicken and tuna
Any pasta and prepared sauces, Mac n Cheese
Beans (bag/cans), peanut butter and jelly, Ranch dressing
Cereal any type, oatmeal (packets), pancake mix
Items you think your family would enjoy.

Healthy snacks: Veggie sticks, apples, grapes,
halo/clementines, fresh fruit, light popcorn

Feminine Products and Diapers

Anything you can do to help is greatly appreciated. You are a great support for so many - for that I thank you. Any questions, please contact me, Denise Leparik, @ dleparik@aol.com or 516-315-1990
